DETAILED ACTION

1. This application is a 371 of PCT/US04/35162.
Claims 7-23, 72-107 have been canceled. Claims 1-6, 24-71 are pending.

2. Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 1-4, and 24-56 which are stereoisomeric forms of compounds of formula I-IV, drawn to, 4-aryl/heteroaryl/alkyl substituted piperidines.

Group II, claim 5 and 57-60, drawn to bis-piperidines of formula V.

Group III, claim 6 and 61-71, drawn to piperidine oxides of formula VI.

The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

PCT Rule 13.1 states that the international application shall relate to one invention only or to a group of inventions so linked as to form a single general inventive concept ("requirement of unity of invention").

PCT Rule 13.2 states that the unity of invention referred to in Rule 13.1 shall be fulfilled only when there is a technical relationship among those inventions involving one or more of the same or corresponding special technical features.

Annex B, Part I(a), indicates that the application should relate to only one invention, or if there is more than one invention, inclusion is permitted if they are so linked to form a single general inventive concept.

Annex B Part I(b), indicates that "special technical features" means those technical features that as a whole define a contribution over the prior art.

Annex B Part I(c), further defines independent and dependent claims. Unity of invention only is concerned in relation to independent claims. Dependent claims are defined as a claim that contains all the features of another claim and is in the same category as the other claim. The category of a claim refers to the classification of claims according to subject matter e.g. product, process, use, apparatus, means, etc.

Annex B Part I(c), indicates that the permissible combinations of different categories of claims. Part I(c)L states that inclusion of an independent claim for a given product, an independent claim for a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and an independent claim for a use of the said product is permissible.

Annex B, Part I(f), indicates the "Markush practice* of alternatives in a single claim. Part I(f)][, indicates the technical relationship and the same or corresponding special technical feature is considered to be met when (A) all alternatives have a common property or activity, and 03) a common structure is present or all alternatives belong to a recognized class of chemical compounds. Further defining (13), Annex B, Part I(I)(i-iii), the common structure must; a) occupy a large portion of their structure, or b) the common structure constitutes a structurally distinctive portion, or c) where the structures are equivalent and therefore a recognized class of chemical compounds, each member could be substituted for one another with the same intended result. That is, with a common or equivalent structure, there is an expectation relationship and the corresponding special technical feature result from a common (or equivalent) structure that is responsible for the common activity (or property). Part I(0 iv, indicates that when all alternatives of a Markush grouping can be differently classified, it shall no, take alone, be considered justification for finding a lack of unity. Part I(O)v, indicates that "When dealing with alternatives, if it can be shown that at least one Markush alternative is not novel over the prior art. the question of unity of invention shall be reconsidered by the examiner"

In the instant case, at least one Markush alternative is not novel because prior art by US 6,127,366 (recited on 1449) will form an "X" reference, thus rendered group 11 not novel, particularly see formula on col. 42 supported by description at col. 3-8, 44. Therefore, It was found that groups I-III lack unity of invention.
